- a) that all costs, charges, disbursements and taxes, or a portion thereof, recovered on behalf of the Client, either by settlement of this matter or by judgment of a court, shall be applied directly against the total amount of costs, charges, disbursements and taxes incurred by the Lawyer on behalf of the Client in pursuing the matter, and

- 8(2) The Lawyer's bill under subsection 8(1) may be enforced as a lien against any settlement or judgment recovered on behalf of the Client in this matter subsequent to the Lawyer being discharged or otherwise terminated under subsection 8(1).
- 9(1) The Lawyer may withdraw from representing the Client under this agreement on reasonable notice to the Client, provided that upon such withdrawal the Lawyer shall not be entitled to any fee for services or for payment of any costs, charges, disbursements and taxes incurred on behalf of the Client.
- 9(2) If the Lawyer withdraws under subsection 9(1) because of cause created by the Client, the Lawyer is entitled to recover from the Client fees on the basis of the Lawyer's normal hourly rate for such matter, and for costs, charges, disbursements and taxes, to which the 10 If the Client settles this matter without the knowledge or participation of the Lawyer, the Client shall pay to the Lawyer the fees agreed under section 4 based on the final recovery received by the Client.
